

Meet Becca!

Hey! My name is Becca Wessley and there are a few things you should know about me right off the bat. First, I love great coffee...like nearly all things made from those magical beans! Second, I'm a recently retired hair dresser/business owner who traded it all in to live the glamorous life of homeschooling 5 kiddos full time and a being a wife to my hunk of a husband. (Hence all the coffee!) Third, I love kids and have a passion for uncovering the gifts and abilities they have had all along, but maybe weren't able to in recognize themselves.

Although, coffee and love for kids are both vital for this role, there are a few things I bring with me that I think will be pretty helpful. At age 7, I could barely flail in the water well enough to keep from being a "drown risk" which meant the only way to go was up! So, my parents put me on a local competitive team and with countless hours in the city pool and our home pool I really started to shine. I became one of the most respected swimmers in the area and was even able to swim at SMSU (showing my age here) for a year. Swimming has clearly been a love, passion, and a pastime for a good portion of my life! After swimming in college I went on to coach a local swim team for a couple of years and am now an assistant coach for my daughters softball team right here in good ol' Willard.
